0 | Jamison Lookout

The recently renovated Jamison Lookout is on Sir H Burrell Drive, in the Blue Mountains National Park. The lookout has a wonderful view to the south, down the Jamison Valley to Mount Solitary and beyond. This is a great wheelchair-accessible viewpoint with a large information sign and bench seats. The lookout is fenced, and is located just below the Wentworth Falls Picnic Area.

(220 m 4 mins) From Jamison Lookout, this walk follows the footpath along Sir H. Burrell Drive, past the information sign, keeping the Jamison Valley to the right. Soon the footpath leads to an intersection at the top of some steps (signposted as the way to 'Princes Rock Lookout').

Turn right: From the top of the steps, this walk heads down the steps following the 'Princes Rock Lookout' sign. The track soon comes to a three-way intersection, with a 'Car Park' arrow pointing back up.

(160 m 6 mins) Continue straight: From the intersection, this walk follows the 'Princes Rock Lookout' arrow down the log steps. The walk passes an old water trough (not suitable for drinking) and continues down the hill, soon passing over a rock platform with steps carved in it. After a few more log steps, the walk comes to a signposted intersection with a track heading off to the 'Undercliff track'.

Continue straight: From the intersection, this walk heads downhill following the 'Princes Rock Lookout 200m' sign along the wide track. Very soon, the walk comes to an intersection with another track (on the left - which was closed at time of writing).

Continue straight: From the intersection, the walk heads down the gentle hill towards the cliffs and the fenced (unsignposted) Princes Rock Lookout.

0.37 | Princes Rock

Princes Rock is a great fenced lookout, to the west of Wentworth Falls. There are extensive views into the Jamison Valley below. The lookout has an excellent view of Wentworth Falls, cascading over the cliffs opposite.
