

Walls Ledge (Long) Track

1 hr 15 mins

Moderate track

3

2.3 km One way

▲ 128m

This extended version of the Walls Ledge Track begins at Bundarra St and continues down past a side trip to Fort Rock. The track sports a small waterfall and some cliff-base walking. It also rises above to follow the same cliffs back to Centennial Rd car park. The track takes in awesome scenes of the sheer cliffs to the west of Blackheath.

925m

1044m

Blue Mountains LGA

Are you ready to have fun?

Please ensure you and your group are well prepared and equipped for all possible hazards and delays. Check park closures, weather information and Fire Danger Rating before setting out. Optional side trips and alternate routes noted are not included in this walks overall grade, length or time estimate. Please allow extra time for resting and exploring areas of interest. The authors, staff and owners of wildwalks take care in preparing this information but will not accept responsibility for any inconvenience, loss or injury you may experience. Please take care, have fun - Happy Walking.

Getting there You can get to End of Bundarra St (gps: -33.635, 150.2805) by car, train or bus. Car: There is free parking available.

You can get back from Centennial Glen Rd Carpark (gps: -33.6389, 150.2754) by car, train or bus. Car: There is free parking available.

Find up to date and more information including; travel directions, weather, park closures and walker feedback at <http://wild.tl/wlt>

0 | End of Bundarra St

(440 m 12 mins) From the corner of Bundarra St and Eveleigh Ave, this walk heads down the hill keeping the houses on the right and bush on the left. The track soon leads to a telegraph pole and track on the right, below Gordon Ave.

Continue straight: From the intersection below the telegraph pole, this walk heads down the hill, keeping the valley on the left. The walk drops down boardwalked track for some time before entering the heath. Winding down through the heath, the track opens out onto Centennial Glen Creek, which it crosses to the other side near the seats and rock cliff.

0.44 | Centennial Glen Ck

(240 m 6 mins) Veer right: From the creek, this walk heads towards the broken seats under the cliffs and continues around the hillside. The track soon leaves the cliffs to meander through the heath for a short time, before coming to a rocky surface painted with arrows for 'Porters Pass' and 'Fortress Rock'.

0.67 | Optional sidetrip to Fort Rock

(130 m 4 mins) Turn right: From the painted rock, this walk heads up onto the rocky outcrop. The track winds through the thick heath vegetation and up a few steps for approximately 50m, to open out to the prominent feature of Fort Rock. At the end of this side trip, retrace your steps back to the main walk then Veer right.

0.67 | Fort Rock

Fort Rock, Blue Mountains National Park, is a formation of rock that sits alone in solitude above Centennial Glen valley. It looks very similar to a rook chess piece. From the top of the rock, there are stunning views over the Megalong Valley and Kanimbla Valley.

0.67 | Int. Fort Rock Trk and Centennial Pass Trk

(540 m 18 mins) Turn left: From the rocky surface, this walk follows the arrow to 'Porters Pass' down the hill. The track heads down through thick heath to come to a set of stairs in a narrow pass. The walk leads down the stairs to a clearer area, lined with cliffs. The track keeps with the cliffs on the left to wind into Centennial Glen with a waterfall over the track. The track continues to follow the cliffs on the left to a boulder marked in white paint 'Porters Pass'.

Veer left: From the intersection, this walk follows the clearing below the cliffs (left of the track) for approximately 50m. The track comes to an intersection marked by two rocks, with 'Centennial Glen' and 'Porters Pass' painted on them.

1.21 | Int. Walls Ledge Track and Centennial Pass Trk

(1.1 km 26 mins) Veer left: From the intersection, this walk keeps the valley on the right as the track soon leaves the cliffs to meander around the hillside, coming to the steps on the left.

Veer right: From the intersection, this walk heads beneath the cliffline for approximately 40m towards the Kanimbla Valley. The track drops through the heath to a cliffline covered in thick scrub. A man-made basin, filled by drips from the cliff roof above, is passed as the track continues to follow the cliffline on the left. The track undulates along a clear cliffline for quite some time, with views into the Kanimbla Valley to the right. Be mindful of climbers and falling objects along these cliffs. The track keeps with the cliffs as they tend left to a rock slope, with stairs cut into the rock. The track climbs these stairs to meander through the heath for some time, with the track widening. The track continues through the heath to a gate before a car park, on Centennial Glen Rd.

