

Cremorne Point to Mosman Wharf

45 mins

Easy track

2 km One way

▲ 68m

This walk explores the foreshore tracks of Cremorne Reserve, taking in fantastic harbour views, beautiful gardens and a sidetrip to Robertson's Point lighthouse. Starting from Cremorne ferry wharf, the walk climbs to Robertson's Point and lighthouse, then meanders down past interesting houses and historic gardens, before delving into Mosmans Bay and finishing up at the ferry wharf. A great way to explore part of the harbour, capped off with rides on the ferry.

0 | Cremorne Point Ferry Wharf

Cremorne Point Ferry Wharf marks the first stop on the Mosman Ferry Service. The wharf is home to Sophie's Place cafe, serving coffee, food and drinks. A public phone, public toilets and a children's playground can all be found within 100m of this wharf. More info.

0 | Cremorne Point Ferry Wharf

(40 m 1 mins) From the entrance to Cremorne Point Ferry Wharf, this walk crosses Milson Road to the base of the staircase on the other side of the road. Here the walk turns right to head up the steps past the lookout and monument to 'Sophie Vaillant' to an intersection with a few other footpaths.

0.04 | Sophies Lookout

This unofficial lookout takes in sweeping views across Sydney Harbour, over top of Cremorne Point Wharf and 'Sophie's Place' cafe. The lookout is dedicated to Sophie Vaillant, long-term proprietor of the cafe below.

0.04 | Optional sidetrip to Robertsons Point Lookout

(200 m 3 mins) Turn right: From the intersection, this walk heads along the footpath directly away from the house, heading towards the toilet block and playground. The path leads past this park area and heads into the bush, then passes a couple of information signs to find a concrete rock cairn, built for the 'Clan of Donnachaidh' in 1988 (each rock has its town of origin carved in it). The walk then continues along the path past a picnic table (with views and some shade) to find the lookout at Robertsons Point. (There is a track with steps and ladder that continues further down to the very tip of the point for the adventurous). At the end of this side trip, retrace your steps back to the main walk then Veer right.

0.04 | Robertsons Point Lookout

Robertsons Point, also known as Cremorne Point, is home to Cremorne Reserve. At the very tip, visitors can wander down some old steps to the lighthouse, and the more adventurous can continue down a rather precarious ladder to the water's edge. The spectacular harbour views can be enjoyed from a number of bench seats. A memorial plaque reminds visitors to take extra care and respect the inherent dangers of the rocky coast.

0.04 | Sophies Lookout

(370 m 7 mins) Veer left: From the intersection, this walk heads along the footpath, keeping the houses to your left (that is, use the footpath on the far side of the houses from the wharf and road). The footpath leads behind the houses, enjoying the water views (on your right) and after about 250m, the path leads past a 'The Illustrated Sydney News' information sign. Here the walk continues for a short time further to a clear three-way intersection and a drinking fountain.

0.41 | Elephants Ear

The Lex and Ruby Graham Garden at Cremorne Point is quite remarkable, worthy of a little extra time on your walk. A chance planting of a tropical 'Elephant's Ear' bulb in 1959, which happened to thrive, led to a lifetime work for Lex Graham and his future wife, Ruby. They worked steadily for decades, clearing weeds and rubbish, improving the soil and building up the gardens with donated plants and cuttings.

0.41 | Elephants Ear

(260 m 6 mins) Continue straight: From the intersection, this walk heads along the main foreshore track, keeping the house to your left. The path almost immediately passes the northern end of the signposted 'Elephant's Ear' garden and continues past some other exotic gardens behind the houses, whilst keeping the water views to your right. After 200m, the path leads to an information sign about the constructed environment and then to a clearing with a sandstone rotunda. There is a four-way intersection just above the 'Sydney Amateur Sailing Club' (on your right).

0.67 | SASC intersection

(150 m 3 mins) Continue straight: From the intersection, this walk follows the 'Old Cremorne Wharf' sign sign gently uphill along the path, keeping the water to your right. The path soon comes to another intersection where this walk tends right, following the path for about 120m (passing a few informal side tracks) to find some large sandstone boulders and the entrance to the 'Old Cremorne' Ferry Wharf.

0.82 | Old Cremorne Ferry Wharf

(320 m 7 mins) Turn left: From the Old Cremorne Ferry Wharf entrance, this walk follows the footpath away from the power lines keeping the water to your right. The path leads up the hill and after 180m, the path heads up a set of steps. The path continues to enjoy water views (to your right), passing behind a row of houses. Soon the path bends left to pass a 'Cremorne Point' sign and find a clear three-way intersection and a bench seat.

1.14 | Bottom of Hodgson Ave steps

(430 m 9 mins) Turn right: From the intersection, this walk follows the 'Bromley Ave' sign along the footpath (not actually a road) between the row of houses to find a four-way intersection at the last house, number five.

Continue straight: From 5 Bromley Ave, this walk heads down the steps and follows the path to cross the timber bridge over the valley. The walk bends right and follows the path for 250m, enjoying the water views to your right. The path then passes a 'Harnett Park' sign (and ignores the upper track on your left), then heads down some steps and turns left. The walk heads past the 'Rowers Restaurant' to a car park and the Mosman Bay Marina.

1.57 | Rowers Restaurant

Located deep in Mosmans Bay, the Rowers Restaurant is part of Mosman Rowers Club (distinct from Mosman Rowing Club at the Spit), between Mosman Marina and Sea Scouts Hall. Open to the public, the club houses a bistro, restaurant and bar, which are open for lunch and dinner daily, as well as breakfast on Sundays. For more information, call 9953 7966. More info.

1.57 | Mosman Bay Marina

(400 m 7 mins) Continue straight: From Mosman Bay Marina, this walk follows the waterside footpath, keeping the water to your right. The path soon bends right to round to the apex of Mosmans Bay opposite 'Reid Park' and a children's playground. Here the walk continues around the bay and after 110m, comes to a large rock commemorating 'H.M.S Sirius'. The walk then continues 90m to the bush shelter and the entrance to Mosman Bay Ferry Wharf.

1.96 | Mosman Bay Ferry Wharf and Shops
